DISPATCH - Apr 13, 2012 (12:30 p.m.)

HAMPTONS & NORTH FORK, NY

Seascapes, Abstraction, Conceptual and Pop art are on tap for this weekend's new exhibitions. Saturday night is a busy one with openings in Water Mill, Sag Harbor, East Hampton and Greenport.

Sara Nightingale Gallery opens the group show "LA-X" on Sat (Apr 14) from 6 to 8 p.m. The exhibition presents "mostly under-recognized artists living and working in Los Angeles," according to the gallery. All were born between 1960 and 1980, making them part of Generation X (hence the exhibition title).

"LA-X" is designed to tag team with the current show at the Parrish Art Museum. On view are Los Angeles artists collected by Beth Rudin DeWoody. Works on view showcase artists or art movements from 1945 to 1980. "LA-X" begins where the Parrish Show leaves off and presents artists working in LA since the 1980s.

There are 16 artists in the exhibition. They are Sophia Allison, Leon Benn, Michael Blasi, Colin Burns, Karen Chu, Stephanie Farr, J. Bennett Fitts, Alexa Gerrity, Karl Hahn, Joshua Levine, Devon Oder, Josh Peters, Colin Roberts, Cole Sternberg, Nicola Vruwink and Annie Wharton.

Here's a few works from the wide-ranging show:

"A Golden TV" by Cole Sternberg. Television, spray paint, 12 x 14 x 18 inches.

Tulla Booth Gallery in Sag Harbor opens “Dreaming of Summer 2” with an artist reception on Saturday (Apr 14) from 6 to 8 p.m. The all-photography show is presenting seascapes and summer lifestyles. “Dreaming of Summer 2” offers new works by Anne Gabriele, Daniel Jones, John Margaritis, Blair Seagram, Bob Tabor, Lynn Geesaman and Barbara Macklowe. It remains on view through May 20.

On the North Fork, the Greenport Harbor Brewing Company opens the two-person show “PURE PLEASURE: Friends, Mentors, Artists” on Saturday (Apr 14) from 6 to 9 p.m. The show features sea-inspired paintings by Cindy Pease Roe of Greenport and assemblages by David Ellis of Cape Cod, MA. It remains on view through Apr 30.

The pair are long-time friends and artists who exhibit together for the first time in “PURE PLEASURE.” Roe grew up in Cape Cod. Her first oil painting was made in Ellis’s garden studio in Cape Cod, according to the gallery.

Ellis began with landscaping paintings before focusing on mixed media and collage, according to a release. His work is influenced by the things he finds and gathers from the shorelines. The unique character of each found object becomes exalted in his art.

An assemblage by David Ellis.
