THE SPRINGS-

Snow storm Nemo trumped determined attentions to present a show of area artists exhibiting at Ashawagh Hall in February. This weekend, "Mostly Abstract" gets a second chance when it reappears at Ashawagh Hall. The exhibition features nearly the same line up of artists. Exhibiting artists in the current show are Barbara Bilotta, Phyllis Hammond, Jana Hayden, Jim Hayden, Sheila Rotner, Cynthia Sobel, Beth Barry, Stephanie Reit and Lieve Thiers.

"Mostly Abstraction" presents a snapshot of the ways abstraction currently appears in works made by artists with connections to the East End. Artists were selected and the show curated by Sobel. The exhibition includes paintings, drawings and sculpture.
