

Museum Look - January 2015 on Long Island

January 7, 2015

by Sage Cotignola

Student art arrives at both East End museums this month. Elsewhere on Long Island, a photography exhibition made with unusual techniques continues at the Heckscher Art Museum and Asian art is the subject of exhibitions at two Nassau County art museums. The Islip Art Museum opens a new exhibition featuring work made by international-born artists now working in America. Following is the full list of exhibitions on view at Long Island museums.

DAN FLAVIN ART INSTITUTE - BRIDGEHAMPTON, NY

"A FRIENDSHIP: CARL ANDRE'S WORKS ON PAPER FROM THE LEWITT COLLECTION" continues through March 2, 2015. The exhibition is presented in two consecutive exhibitions. The first section, on view through Oct. 18, presents Andre's correspondences with LeWitt and rare works on paper. The second section will be on view from Oct. 24, 2014 through March 2, 2015, and will focus on Andre's poetry.

ON PERMANENT VIEW is an installation by Dan Flavin (1933-1996) of nine works in fluorescent light made between 1963 and 1981. The exhibition follows Flavin's art practice from when he began to work solely with standard fluorescent fixtures and tubes to just before the presentation of his new art form was realized.

Dan Flavin Art Institute is located on Corwith Avenue, about 1/2 block from Main Street, Bridgehampton, NY 11932. The museum is open weekends from noon to 6 p.m. For details and programming, visit www.diaart.org.
