When Art Southampton opens its doors, expect to find bold works by LOVEMANOLIS and J. Steven Manolis. Exhibited by Wynwood Art Group Studio & Gallery (Miami, FL), the booth is a curated mix of works made by the two distinct yet connected artists. LOVEMANOLIS is a collaboration between fashion photographer Fred Love and contemporary abstract painter J. Steven Manolis. The difference between the two is as striking—a description that also fits each of the series exhibited by LOVEMANOLIS and J. Steven Manolis.

Works by LOVEMANOLIS are sensual, surreal and make use of figurative fashion photography imagery as their main compositional elements combined that are painted for impact, artistry and graphic effect. Paintings by J. Steven Manolis are fully abstract; they are bright, bold and channel happiness through their compositions. Manolis is a colorist whose major influence is Wolf Kahn, a friend and mentor.

Artwork by LOVEMANOLIS and J. Steven Manolis is exhibited at Art Southampton at Booth AS21. Art Southampton is presented July 9 - 13, 2015 at Nova's Ark Project, 60 Millstone Road, Bridgehampton, NY 11976. www.art-southampton.com.

J. STEVEN MANOLIS FINE ART

Manolis' paintings are an expression of the conflict between simplicity and complexity, starting every painting with a natural unstructured plan. He then keeps adding on, going further with each image. More often than not this process quickly leads to a visual conflict, when this occurs the conflict needs to be resolved. The process is repeated again and again resulting in translucent layering of paint beautifully executed and skillfully finished.

The process ends with a resolution of a beautiful finished work of art unique to J. Steven Manolis. His lifelong mentor, friend, artist, educator and "uber-colorist" Wolf Kahn profoundly impact Manolis.

"My objective is to make striking diversified color and monochromatic images that are not only beautiful, but also evoke excitement in my collectors," says Manolis. "When this occurs, I am thrilled and fulfilled."
