

5 Hamptons Art Things To Do This Weekend - 10.02.15

October 2, 2015

by Pat Rogers

No matter what the season, there's always art in the Hamptons and East End of Long Island. We've put together a short list of exhibitions and art events worth noting. Following are our picks of what to do this weekend.

1. ARTIST PROCESS CONVERSATION

"Art/History/Amagansett: Beyond the East End: Artist John Alexander in Conversation with Ruth Appelhof" takes place on Saturday from 6 to 7 p.m. John Alexander will discuss his artistic process with Executive Director of Guild Hall Ruth Appelhof. Admission is free. Reservations are suggested at 631.267.3810. Amagansett Free Library is located at 215 Main Street, Amagansett, NY 11930. www.amaglibrary.org.

2. GALLERY SHOW

"Melanie Moczarski: Lingua Franca" had originally planned an exhibition opening for this Saturday but it's postponement doesn't mean a visit to the gallery isn't in order. With the arrival of the Hamptons International Film Festival next weekend, this may be the perfect time to see the show. The exhibition presents new works incorporating imperfect symmetry, organic lines and a consistent palette executed in acrylic on polyester film. An Opening Reception is planned for Saturday, October 10, from 6 to 8 p.m. Tripoli Gallery is located at 87 Newtown Lane, East Hampton, NY 11937. www.tripoligallery.com.

3. MUSEUM EXHIBITION

EAST HAMPTON HISTORICAL SOCIETY - "Right On! The Lennon Years, Photographs by Susan Wood 1968 - 1978" is a retrospective photography exhibition that distills the mood of an era in American history. Curated by Irish photographer Deirdre Brennan, the photographs capture the vibe on the street and portray icons in the arts, music, fashion, literature and politics, the impact of which molded a generation. Exhibited at the Mulford Farm Museum through October 18, 2015. The Mulford Farm Museum is located at 10 James Lane, East Hampton, NY 11937. www.easthamptonhistory.org.
