

5 Hamptons Things To Do - 10/15/15

October 15, 2015

by Pat Rogers

This weekend brings plenty of art and culture options to The Hamptons and North Fork. There's comedy, live music, artist talks plus galleries and museums to visit. We've put together a short list of things to do this weekend in art and culture on the East End. Keep reading to discover this weekend's picks of events to add to your list.

COMEDY

In need of some laughs? The All Star Comedy Show takes place on Friday at 8 p.m. at Bay Street Theater in Sag Harbor. The comedy show is hosted by Joseph Vecsey and features the comedic talent of Adrienne Iapalucci, Krystyna Hutchinson and Sergio Chicon. Admission is $25. Reserve your seat here. Bay Street Theater is located at 1 Bay Street, NY 11963. www.baystreet.org.

Joseph Vecsey. Courtesy of Bay Street Theater.

POTTERY & CERAMICS

Clay Art Guild of The Hamptons presents its annual Autumn Potters Market for one day only on the grounds of the Bridgehampton Museum Archives. More of a ceramics sale than gallery exhibition, it's an opportunity to see some great work by Hamptons ceramacists and get a jump on holiday shopping. Since the Clay Art Guild closed its art gallery, it's also a rare change to see work by the group. Takes place on Saturday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is free. The Bridgehampton Museum Archives Building is located at 2539 Montauk Hwy, East Hampton, NY 11937. www.hamptonsclayart.org.

ARTIST PERFORMANCE

WATERMILL CENTER hosts an "Open Rehearsal: Amy Khoshbin" on Saturday from 7:30 to 9 p.m. Khoshbin is the current artist in residence at Watermill Center. She and her co-director Liz McAuliffe will present The Myth of Layla, a performance piece set in the near future with the United States is at war with Iran. Admission is free but reservations required. Make a reservation here. While there, check out the site-specific exhibition by Mexican artist G.T. Pellizzi. Otherwise, "Visitations: G.T. Pellizzi" is open by appointment only through November 21, 2015.

"The Myth of Layla" by Amy Khoshbin. Courtesy Watermill Center.

GALLERY & ARTIST TALK

Globetrotting photographers give an artist talk on their adventures and their fine art photography on Sunday from 1 to 3 p.m. at Alex Ferrone Photography Gallery on the North Fork in Cutchogue. The Talk coincides with the group exhibition “Globetrotting”. Click here to see some of the images. Admission is free and reservations are required. Alex Ferrone Photography Gallery is located at 25425 Main Road, Cutchogue, NY 11935. The exhibition remains on view through November 15, 2015. www.alexferronegallery.com.

“Great Wall” by Susan Dooley.

LIVE MUSIC

The Funky Guajiros: Cuban Jazz perform at the Montauk Library on Sunday at 3:30 p.m. Members of the Funky Guajiros include Yuniel Jimenez on Cuban tres guitar & vocals, Pedro Giraudo on bass & vocals and Jainardo Batista on vocals & percussion. Admission is free. The Montauk Library is located at 871 Montauk Hwy, Montauk, NY 11954. www.montauklibrary.org.

To see the full list of art events on the East End, check our Hamptons Art Hub’s Art Event Round Up. Click here to see the list of current museum shows on view. Visit our Gallery Guide or our Exhibition Finder to discover what’s on view in The Hamptons, The East End and New York City.

Copyright 2015 Hamptons Art Hub LLC. All rights reserved.