Looking for things to do this weekend in The Hamptons? Look no further...we've put together our short list of cultural events to add to yours. Expect artist talks, performance and more this weekend in The Hamptons.

1. A Day with Stephanie Brody-Lederman

On Saturday, it's possible to spend an entire day immersed in the work of artist Stephanie Brody-Lederman. On Saturday at 11:30 a.m., Guild Hall Museum Director / Chief Curator Christina Strassfield joins Brody-Lederman to discuss her art and solo show, "Dancing with Truffaut", on view at the museum's Spiga Gallery through January 3, 2016. The exhibition is the prize for winning Top Honors at Guild Hall's 2013 Artists Members Exhibition. Later that evening, a solo show by Brody-Lederman opens at Sara Nightingale Gallery in Water Mill. "Out Gallivanting" has its Opening Reception from 5 to 7 p.m. The show is co-presented with guest curator Karyn Mannix.

Guild Hall is located at 158 Main Street, East Hampton NY 11937. www.guildhall.org. Sara Nightingale Gallery is located at 688 Montauk Highway, Water Mill, NY 11976. www.saranightingale.com.

2. "Of Mice and Men"

"Of Mice and Men" opens to the public this weekend at Bay Street Theater. The adaptation for stage of John Steinbeck's novel, directed by Joe Minutillo, will be presented at 7 p.m. on Friday and Saturday and at 2 p.m. Sunday. Performances continue through November 28, 2015. Performances may include talk backs exploring the play or Steinbeck's history in Sag Harbor and conditions of migrant workers on the East End during the Great Depression. Friday's performance includes a Q&A session with the cast. The theater's lobby also has information about the production process including images and sketches from the rehearsal process. The production is part of the Literature Live! that presents free performances of literature for students.

The cast features many Hamptons actors. The cast includes Preston Truman Boyd, Joe Pallister, Terry Brockbank, Josh Gladstone, Jon Kovach, J. Stephen Brantley, Georgia Warner, Sawyer Spielberg, William Sturek, and Chauncy Thomas.

Adult admission is $27-$50; students free with ID. Bay Street Theater is located at 1 Bay Street, Sag Harbor NY 11963. www.baystreet.org.

4. Chef’s Talk at Guild Hall

Guild Hall presents a lecture by Winston Lyons, the chef / owner of the East Hampton restaurant Winston’s Bar & Grill, on Sunday from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. The talk is part of an ongoing lecture series at Guild Hall inviting local experts to speak on their life, work and knowledge. Coffee and refreshments served.

A native of Jamaica, Winston Lyons developed a love for cooking while spending time in the kitchen with his grandma growing up. He attended culinary school in Jamaica and worked as a line cook in one of Jamaica’s most popular hotels, the Wyndham, before leaving for the United States, where he settled in East Hampton. He has worked at East Coast Oyster, Turtle Crossing, East Hampton Point and East Hampton Grill.

Free admission. Guild Hall is located at 158 Main Street, East Hampton NY 11937.
