

5 Things To Do on New Year's Day and Weekend to Welcome 2016 in The Hamptons & North Fork

December 30, 2015

by Cristina Schreil

New Year's Eve is the main event for many but New Year's Day and the weekend offers alternatives for ringing in the new year. We've gathered our top five events to welcome 2016 in The Hamptons and on the North Fork. The fun starts on New Year's Day and continues through the weekend. Expect ways to experience nature, good food, laughter and connecting with community.

1. First Day Hike

The New York State Parks Department is hosting several New Year's Day hikes all over the state, and those on the East End can join in on a trek through Montauk Point State Park on Friday, January 1, at 1 p.m. Starting at the Montauk Point Concession, a State Park naturalist will guide participants on a two-to-three mile hike, stopping at several scenic spots, including Money Pond. Expect to see several species of plants, trees and wildlife. Weather-appropriate clothing and comfortable shoes are encouraged.

Registration is required by calling (631) 668-5000. Montauk Point State Park is located at 2000 Montauk Highway, Montauk NY 11954. www.nysparks.com.

3. Traditional New England Contradance

The Water Mill Community House hosts a traditional New England Contradance, presented by The Long Island Traditional Music Association, on Saturday, January 2, from 8 to 11 p.m. Partners and knowledge of dance steps are not needed. Direction on dance steps are provided as the dances unfold. Singles, couples and groups are welcome. Soft-soled shoes are recommended.

Those interested in a lesson can arrive at 7:45 p.m. Refreshments are pot luck and available to all. The Contradance takes place at the Water Mill Community House on the first Saturday of the month from October to May.

Admission is $14 for people 16 and over. The Water Mill Community House is located at 743 Montauk Highway, Water Mill NY 11976. www.litma.org.
