

5 Things to Do in the Hamptons & East End This Weekend

January 8, 2016

by Cristina Schreil

Here are our top picks for things to do in the Hamptons, East End and Riverhead this weekend. The popular screening of the film “Heart of a Dog” by Laurie Anderson at the Parrish Art Museum has already sold out, but read on to find other things to do in arts and culture in The Hamptons and on the East End through January 10, 2016.

1. The Cast of “Beatlemania” at Suffolk Theater

The Suffolk Theater presents a concert featuring former cast members of the “Beatlemania” Broadway musical on Friday, January 8, at 8 p.m. Expect more than two hours of covers of beloved Beatles songs, including “Strawberry Fields,” “Penny Lane,” “I am the Walrus,” and works from the Abbey Road album. Cast members Carlo Cantamessa as John, Lenie Colacino as Paul, James Filgate as George, and John Delgado as Ringo undergo three costume changes and perform on classic guitars, many of which are the same model as those used by The Beatles. Also performing on multi-keyboards and percussion is musical director Mark Templeton. Expect plenty of chances to sing along.

Tickets are $40 to $49 and options include row seating and cabaret seating. Doors, bar and restaurant open at 6:30 p.m. The Suffolk Theater is located at 118 East Main Street, Riverhead NY 11901. www.suffolktheater.com.
