4. East End Music Film Series: Screening & Discussion of Voices of Sarafina at Bay Street Theater

Voices of Sarafina by Nigel Noble screens on Sunday, February 28, 2016 at 2 p.m. Voices of Sarafina is a 1988 American documentary film about the anti-apartheid musical stage play Sarafina! The documentary profiles a troupe of South African teenagers who perform the Broadway play Sarafina! under the direction of writer-lyricist Mbongeni Ngema. Scenes of the play alternate with interviews with the performers as they tell their own stories of oppression suffered during South Africa's apartheid years. The film also documents how the actors' spirits are lifted when they meet the singer and social activist Miriam Makeba, who was once exiled from South Africa. A Discussion with Director Nigel Noble follows the screening.

Admission is $15. Bay Street Theater is located at 1 Bay Street, Sag Harbor, NY 11963. www.baystreet.org.
