

ART SEEN: “Rites of Spring” 2016 at LongHouse Reserve

May 9, 2016

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

LongHouse Reserve received the perfect weather when it opened for the season and welcomed visitors to its Rites of Spring celebration on April 30, 2016. The Opening Celebration saw guests strolling among gardens just beginning to bloom and taking in new sculptures as well as noting a few reinstallations of sculpture returning for 2016.

Rites of Spring also provided the opening of the design exhibition “Master Works” featuring furnishings and art-in-craft media. The show was co-curated by LongHouse staff Jack Lenor Larsen, founder, and Wendy Van Deusen, with guest curators James Zemaitis and Sherri Donghia. Click here for more information on the sculptures unveiled at the “Rites of Spring” celebration.

LongHouse celebrates its 25th anniversary this year.

To see images of the Opening at LongHouse Reserve, view our slideshow:

View Slideshow

.

Lee Skolnick, JoAnn Secor, Matko Tomicic, Mae Mouglin, Jim Allman. Photo by Dawn Watson.

.

“Legs” by Larry Rivers. Photo by Dawn Watson.

.

Sara & Josh Goldfarb, Andy & Judi Marcus. Photo by Dawn Watson.

.

BASIC FACTS: The twelve new sculptures unveiled at “Rites of Spring” 2016 remain on view at LongHouse through October 8, 2016. The “Master Works” exhibition also opened on April 30 and remains on view through July 16, 2016.

LongHouse Reserve is located at 133 Hands Creek Rd, East Hampton, NY 11937.
www.longhouse.org.

Copyright 2016 Hamptons Art Hub LLC. All rights reserved.