

Weekend: Best Bets for Events in The Hamptons & East End August 19 - 21, 2016

August 19, 2016

by Pat Rogers

Artist and designer conversations, classical music set among sculpture, an artist studio tour, a new site-specific installation, a magical realism exhibition with artist on site, and more made our list of Best Bets for things to do this weekend in The Hamptons and the East End of Long Island. Events take place through August 21, 2016 and take place throughout The Hamptons and on Shelter Island.

On view in the ARTSI Studio Tour. "Stone Ridge Triptych: The Door" by Joe Reilly. Acrylic on gessoed paper, 28 x 40 inches.

Watchcase Salons's Conversation on Art & Design

Dale Cohen Design and the Southampton Arts Center launch a new series of Watchcase Salon: Intimate Conversations on Art & Design. Set in Sag Harbor's Watchcase Factory residential complex, salon-style talks feature East End artists and designers affiliated with a curated art and design installation by Dale Cohen Design Studio at 33 Church Street in Sag Harbor. This weekend features talks by artists Jeff Muhs (Friday at 5 p.m.) and Almond Zigmund on Saturday at 11 a.m. Admission is free and space is limited. Reservations are recommended and can be made by clicking here for Muhs and here for Zigmund. The series is hosted by Dale Cohen Design Studio and

Parrish Road Show Part II - Toni Ross

This weekend, Toni Ross unveils her Parrish Road Show installation at Marder's in Bridgehampton with an Opening Reception on Saturday from 5 to 7 p.m. and an Artists Talk on Sunday at 11 a.m. Toni Ross is intrigued by the intersection of diverse objects and materials, especially those that defy logic. These concepts are often represented by fine threads that bind powerful, weighty forms. For her Parrish Road Show, Permanent Transience, the artist creates a juxtaposition of materials through an installation of sculpted straw bales that intersect and envelop three massive on-site boulders. Marder's is located at 120 Snake Hollow Road, Bridgehampton, NY 11930. For details, click here.

Shelter Island Artists Open Studio Tour

The annual Artists of Shelter Island Open Studio Tour returns this weekend and offers the chance to visit 16 artist studios on a free self-guided tour. Artists opening their studios include painters, photographers, printmakers, digital artists and sculptors. Artwork is available for sale and many of the artists accept commissions. Participating artists include: Sally Jacobs Baker, Janet Culbertson, Kathryn A. Cunningham, Roz Dimon, Amy Grabelsky, Katherine Hammond, Megan Hergrueter, Emily Rose Larsen, Bob Markell, Kia Pedersen, Linda Puls, Joe Reilly, June Shatken, Mary Theinert, Peter Waldner and Mike Zisser. Studios are open from Noon to 5 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday. For
