

Call for Art: “From the Earth” Juried Competition Now Open for Fine Art and Fine Art Photography

October 5, 2016

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

Hamptons Art Hub is issuing a Call for Art with the theme “From the Earth.” Artwork Submissions are open for Fine Art and Fine Art Photography.

The competition is juried by Christine Berry of Berry Campbell gallery in New York City.

Submissions are now accepted online through November 6, 2016.

Artists can be based anywhere in the world. The Call for Art is NOT restricted to artists working in The Hamptons.

Hamptons Art Hub announces its first fall Call for Art Competition in support of the theme “From the Earth.” The theme makes note of the importance of the earth and its influence in art. Artists are encouraged to interpret the theme as they wish with connections through composition, material, theme, inspiration or subject. Submissions are now open and will be accepted online through November 6, 2016. Selected art works will be presented in a juried online-only exhibition at Hamptons Art Hub that opens the week of November 21, 2016. Artists can be based anywhere in the world. The Call for Art is NOT restricted to artists working in The Hamptons.

One art work will be selected as the Top Honor winner for the Call for Art Competition. First Place winners will be selected in the categories of Fine Art and Fine Art Photography. Honorable Mentions may be awarded based on the judge’s discretion.

Hamptons Art Hub’s Call for Art Competition will be judged by New York City gallerist Christine Berry of Berry Campbell, located in the Chelsea neighborhood of New York City.

Christine Berry earned her Bachelors of Art in Art History from Baylor University, Waco, Texas and her Masters in Art History and Museum Studies from the University of North Texas, Denton, Texas. She began her career at the Modern Art Museum of Fort Worth, working under Chief Curator, Michael Auping and continued on to the Whitney Museum of American Art. Over sixteen years ago, she shifted from the non-profit sector to the commercial art world.

Christine Berry opened Berry Campbell Gallery with Martha Campbell in 2013. The 2,000 square foot gallery is located at 530 West 24th Street on the ground floor in the heart of Chelsea in New York City. Berry Campbell features Post-War Modern and Contemporary art with a focus on established and mid-career contemporary artists. The gallery represents: Edward Avedisian, Walter Darby Bannard, Dan Christensen, Eric Dever, Perle Fine, Balcomb Greene, Gertrude Greene, Judith Godwin, Ken Greenleaf, Raymond Hendler, Jill Nathanson, William Perehudoff, Ann Purcell, Jon Schueler, Mike Solomon, Syd Solomon, Albert Stadler, Susan Vecsey, James Walsh and Larry Zox.

Berry Campbell participates in numerous art fairs including Art Miami and has been positively reviewed in Artcritical, Artforum, Hamptons Art Hub, Hyperallergic, The New York Observer and the Wall Street Journal. Christine Berry recently participated on a panel for the American Abstract Artists' Group, was quoted in Bloomberg News on the art market, was a guest lecturer for the Sotheby's Art Institute and co-curated the Center for Maine Contemporary Art's 2016 Biennial with John Yau. Christine Berry continues to place art in the world's foremost public and private collections.

The Top Honor winner of Hamptons Art Hub "From the Earth" Call for Art will receive a review written by Hamptons Art Hub staff or an artist profile written by Pat Rogers, an award-winning writer and publisher of Hamptons Art Hub. First Place Category Winners will be awarded a free Directory Listing at Hamptons Art Hub to showcase their art for one year. Honorable Mentions receive a call out feature on our Facebook page. Contest winners and a selection of top art work submissions will be featured in the juried online-only exhibition at HamptonsArthub.com that opens on November 21, 2016.

Submissions to "From the Earth" Call for Art Competition are now being accepted through November 6, 2016.

Submissions will be accepted online only by emailing to artcallhamptonsarthub@gmail.com. Submissions can include up to three artwork images as jpeg attachments. Please include artist name, contact information, home town and country, and art work description (title, medium, year made, dimensions,). Original art work ONLY. Artists are encouraged to submit a short description of their work, their process, and a link to their website. Up to three artworks can be submitted.

A submission fee of $35 applies and is payable online with a credit card by clicking here. Winners of the "From the Earth" art competition will be announced the week of November 21, 2016. The online exhibition will open the same week.

The "From the Earth" Call for Art Competition follows the Spring 2016 Competition "Inspired by Water." Winners selected were Livia Mosanu and Steve Miller for Fine Art and Dalton Portella for Fine Art Photography. Click here to see the art and list of Honorable Mentions. "Inspired by Water" drew national and international submissions.

The judges were Museum Director and Chief Curator Christina Mossaides Strassfield of Guild Hall Museum in East Hampton, NY; Gallerist Kathryn Markel of Kathryn Markel Fine Arts in New York City and Bridgehampton, NY; and Gallerist and fine art photographer Robin Rice of Robin Rice Gallery in New York City. Kathryn Markel of Markel Fine Art of New York City and Bridgehampton; Robin Rice of Robin Rice Gallery in New York City and Christina Mossaides Strauss, Director and Head Curator of Guild Hall.

BASIC FACTS: Submissions are now being accepted through November 6, 2016 for Hamptons Art Hub's Fall Call for Art Competition. Submissions will be accepted online only by emailing to artcallhamptonsarthub@gmail.com. Submissions can include up to three artwork images as jpeg attachments. Please include artist name, contact information, home town and country, and art work description (title, medium, year made, dimensions,). Original art work ONLY. Artists can be based anywhere in the world. The Call for Art is NOT restricted to artists working in The Hamptons.

Artists are encouraged to submit a short description of their work, their process, and a link to their website. Up to three artworks can be submitted. A submission fee of $35 applies and is payable online with a credit card by clicking here. Winners of the "From the Earth" art competition will be announced the week of November 21, 2016. The online exhibition will open the same week.

The theme makes note of the importance of the earth and its influence in art. Artists are encouraged to interpret the theme as they wish with connections through composition, material, theme, inspiration or subject. A juried online exhibition of selected art works will be featured online at HamptonsArtHub.com.

Hamptons Art Hub is an online only publication that focuses on art and culture in The Hamptons and the East End of Long Island, New York City and beyond. We provide engaging reviews, news, stories on the arts, art fair week previews and coverage as well as insight into exhibitions to know in New York. In addition, our editorial includes select reviews and stories of interest to a national and international audience.

Copyright 2016 Hamptons Art Hub LLC. All rights reserved.