HIFF 25th Anniversary Screening: "The Piano" at Guild Hall

Hamptons International Film Festival and Guild Hall presents a 25th Anniversary Screening of "The Piano" on Friday, February 17, 2017 at 6 p.m. Doors open at 5:30 p.m. The screening will be held in the John Drew Theater at Guild Hall.

Set in 1851, a mute Scottish woman arrives in colonial New Zealand for an arranged marriage, with her young daughter and beloved piano in tow. Her practical new husband refuses to transport the piano to their home and makes a deal with his neighbor, George Baines to take the piano off his hands. Attracted to Ada, Baines agrees to return the piano in exchange for piano lessons that become a series of increasingly charged sexual encounters. As pent-up emotions of rage and desire swirl around all three characters, the wilderness begins to consume the tiny European enclave.

Tickets are $15 and $13 for members. Guild Hall is located at 158 Main St, East Hampton, NY 11937. www.guildhall.org.

LIVE in HD: National Theatre presents “No Man’s Land”

Peconic Landing presents LIVE in HD: National Theatre presents “No Man’s Land” on Sunday, February 19, 2017 at 3 p.m. The event will be held in the Peconic Landing Community Center.

Following their hit run on Broadway, Ian McKellen and Patrick Stewart return to the West End stage in Harold Pinter’s “No Man’s Land,” broadcast live to cinemas from Wyndham’s Theatre, London. One summer’s evening, two aging writers, Hirst and Spooner, meet in a Hampstead pub and continue their drinking into the night at Hirst’s house nearby. As the pair become increasingly inebriated, and their stories increasingly unbelievable, the conversation soon turns into a revealing power game, further complicated by the return home of two sinister younger men.

Tickets are $20 per person. Registration is required. Peconic Landing is located at 1500 Brecknock Road, Greenport, NY 11944. www.peconiclanding.com.
