

Call for Art: “In Motion” Juried Competition Now Open for Fine Art and Fine Art Photography

March 2, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

Hamptons Art Hub is issuing a Call for Art with the theme “In Motion.” Artwork Submissions are open for Fine Art and Fine Art Photography.

The competition is juried by Cheryl Hazan of Cheryl Hazan Gallery in New York City.

Submissions are now accepted online through April 9, 2017.

Artists can be based anywhere in the world. The Call for Art is NOT restricted to artists working in The Hamptons.

Artists are encouraged to interpret the theme liberally to portray land, water, people and culture in motion. Images capturing art itself in motion is encouraged.

Hamptons Art Hub announces its second spring Call for Art Competition in support of the theme “In Motion.” The world is in motion in brand new ways, joining movement found in individuals, nature, art genres, journeys of the heart as well as physical and psychological adventures.

Artists are encouraged to interpret the theme as they wish with connections through composition, material, theme, inspiration or subject. Submissions are now open and will be accepted online through April 9, 2017. Artists can be based anywhere in the world. The Call for Art is NOT restricted to artists working in The Hamptons.

One art work will be selected as the Best Overall Artwork winner for the Call for Art Competition. First Place winners will be selected in the categories of Fine Art and Fine Art Photography. Honorable Mentions may be awarded based on the judge’s discretion. Selected art works will be presented in a juried online-only exhibition at Hamptons Art Hub that opens the week of April 23, 2017.

Winners of Best Overall Artwork and Best in Fine Art and Best in Fine Art Photography win a cash prize and a free Artist Directory Membership to showcase their art for one (1) year.

Hamptons Art Hub’s Call for Art Competition will be judged by New York City gallerist Cheryl Hazan of Cheryl Hazan Gallery, located in the Tribeca neighborhood in New York City.

Cheryl Hazan opened her first gallery in Tribeca in 2000. She has consistently exhibited large-scale abstract contemporary paintings throughout her career, making the most of the spacious scale of her unique New York venue. Many of her represented artists are emerging to mid-career artists, who have been placed in important collections and exhibited in museum shows. Three current artists have had or will have solo museum shows.

Cheryl's focus is to keep her followers continually engaged with new artists, mediums and techniques. Cheryl is a hands-on gallerist who works together with many artists to create a serious following for their work. She is also an art collector as well and has curated many collections for new and established collectors.

Cheryl Hazan Gallery specializes in ground breaking contemporary art created with varied and unique techniques and mediums. The gallery exhibits abstract, contemporary and process-based works by mid-career and established artists. Exhibitions present both regional and international artists who have exhibited in museums and international galleries, have their art held in numerous private collections with a variety of works installed in public spaces both nationally and internationally. To discover more about the artists and the gallery, visit www.cherylhazan.com.

The Best Overall Artwork winner of Hamptons Art Hub "In Motion" Call for Art will receive a $250 cash award as well as a free Artist Directory Listing at Hamptons Art Hub to showcase their art for one year. Best in Fine Art and Fine Art Photography each receives a $100 cash award and a free Artist Directory Listing for one year. Honorable Mentions receive a call out feature on our Facebook and Instagram pages.

Contest winners and a selection of top art work, juried by Cheryl Hazan, will be featured in an online-only exhibition at HamptonsArtHub.com that opens the week of April 27, 2017.

Submissions to "In Motion" Call for Art Competition are now being accepted through April 9, 2017.

Submissions will be accepted online only by emailing to artcallhamptonsarthub@gmail.com. Submissions can include up to three artwork images as jpeg attachments. Please include artist name, contact information, home town and country, and art work description (title, medium, year made, dimensions,). Original art work ONLY. Artists are encouraged to submit a short description of their work, their process, and a link to their website. Up to three artworks can be submitted.

A submission fee of $35 applies and is payable online with a credit card by clicking here. Payment can be made either before submitting to the Open Call or coinciding with artist submission.

Winners of the "In Motion" art competition will be announced the week of April 27, 2017. The online exhibition will open the same week.

The "In Motion" art competition follows those held in Fall 2016 for "From the Earth" and the Spring 2016 Competition "Inspired by Water." Winners for the 2016 "Inspired by Water" are Livia Mosanu and Steve Miller for Fine Art and Dalton Portella for Fine Art Photography. Click here to see the art and list of Honorable Mentions. Winners for 2016 “From the Earth” are Anne Sherwood Pundyk for Best Overall Art Work; Barbara Groot for Best Fine Art and Marc Veit Schwaer for Best Fine Art Photography. Click here to see the art and the Honorable Mentions.

Both art competitions drew national and international submissions.

Call for Art judges have included Christina Mossaides Strassfield, director and head curator of Guild Hall Museum in East Hampton, NY; Gallerist Kathryn Markel of Kathryn Markel Fine Arts in New York City and Bridgehampton, N.Y.; Gallerist and fine art photographer Robin Rice of Robin Rice Gallery in New York City; and Gallerist Christine Berry of Berry Campbell in New York City.

BASIC FACTS: Submissions are now being accepted through April 9, 2017 for Hamptons Art Hub’s spring Call for Art Competition with the theme “In Motion.” Submissions will be accepted online only by emailing to artcallhamptonsarthub@gmail.com. Submissions can include up to three artwork images as jpeg attachments. Please include artist name, contact information, home town and country, and art work description (title, medium, year made, dimensions,). Original art work ONLY. Artists can be based anywhere in the world. The Call for Art is NOT restricted to artists working in The Hamptons.

Artists are encouraged to submit a short description of their work, their process, and a link to their website. Up to three artworks can be submitted. A submission fee of $35 applies and is payable online with a credit card by clicking here. Winners of the “In Motion” art competition will be announced the week of April 27, 2017. The online exhibition will open the same week at Hamptons Art Hub.

The “In Motion” theme makes note of the fact the world is moving and changing in brand new ways, joining movement found in individuals, nature, art genres, journeys of the heart as well as physical and psychological adventures. Artists are encouraged to interpret the theme as they wish with connections through composition, material, theme, inspiration or subject. A juried online exhibition of selected art works will be featured online at HamptonsArtHub.com.

Hamptons Art Hub is an online only publication and website that focuses on art and culture in The Hamptons, the East End of Long Island, New York City, the NY Metro and beyond. We provide engaging reviews, news, stories on the arts, art fair week previews and coverage as well as insight into exhibitions presented in New York and Miami. In addition, our editorial includes select reviews and stories of interest to a national and international audience.

Copyright 2017 Hamptons Art Hub LLC. All rights reserved.