"Emily Coates: Incarnations" Performs at Danspace Project

Danspace Project presents "Emily Coates: Incarnations" from Thursday, March 16 to Saturday, March 18, 2017 at 8 p.m. The performance on Thursday, March 16 will be followed by a discussion moderated by Douglas Crimp.

Performed in-progress as part of Danspace Project's Platform 2015: Dancers, Buildings and People in the Streets, "Incarnations" is made up of a series of etudes on dancing with science. Based on Emily Coates' collaboration with particle physicist Sarah Demers, the piece moves between lecture and performance, interweaving divergent sources. "Incarnations" celebrates physics and dance as equal partners in our profound effort to understand our existence.

Advance tickets are $22 for general and $15 for members. Tickets can be purchased at the door for $25. Danspace Project is located at 131 E 10th St, New York, NY 10003. www.danspaceproject.org.

“887,” Created & Performed by Robert Lepage at BAM

BAM presents the US Premiere of “887” from March 16 to March 26, 2017 at BAM Harvey Theater.

887 Murray Avenue, Quebec City, Canada. The apartment complex where renowned director Robert Lepage (“The Blue Dragon,” 2013 Next Wave) spent his youth comes to life as a tech-saturated dollhouse in this personal solo work. As Lepage revisits his childhood home and other reconfigured spaces from his past and present he unearths a life’s worth of memories, sifting in the process through the things we can’t seem to recall and those we aren’t able to forget.

Tickets start at $35. Bam Harvey Theater is located at 651 Fulton St, Brooklyn, NY 11217. www.bam.org.

“Kannapolis: A Moving Portrait” at The Met

The Metropolitan Museum of Art presents the New York Premiere of “Kannapolis: A Moving Portrait” on Friday, March 17, 2017 at 7 p.m. in The Grace Rainey Rogers Auditorium.

“Kannapolis: A Moving Portrait” is a kind of time machine that will transport you into the lives of ordinary people living in the South during the Great Depression. Based on the work of photographer H. Lee Waters, Kannapolis weaves some of the hundreds of short, silent films he shot of daily life in small towns into a tapestry of a moment in time. Composer/singer/violinist Jenny Scheinman and filmmaker Finn Taylor have shaped Waters’s shorts into a truly “moving” portrait.

Tickets are $40. The Met is located at 1000 5th Ave, New York, NY 10028. www.metmuseum.org.
