

Long Island Museum Look - March 2017

March 7, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

As Spring draws nearer, museums across Long Island offer plenty for art and history enthusiasts to enjoy. Be sure to catch the end of an exhibition of political cartoons and a show of photographs by Danny Lyon at Hofstra University Museum. A highlight opening this month is a retrospective of fashion designer Halston's work at Nassau County Museum of Art. Read on for new and continuing exhibitions in Long Island Museums throughout March 2017.

DAN FLAVIN ART INSTITUTE - BRIDGEHAMPTON, NY

"DAN FLAVIN: ICONS" continues through April 30, 2017. The five wall-mounted "icons" on view in the exhibition bridge the mediums of painting and sculpture. The box-like constructions with painted surfaces and attached light fixtures were created between 1961 and 1964.

ON PERMANENT VIEW is an installation by Dan Flavin (1933-1996) of nine works in fluorescent light made between 1963 and 1981. The exhibition follows Flavin's art practice from when he began to work solely with standard fluorescent fixtures and tubes to just before the presentation of his new art form was realized.

Dan Flavin Art Institute is located on Corwith Avenue, about 1/2 block from Main Street, Bridgehampton, NY 11932. The museum is open weekends from noon to 6 p.m. For details and programming, visit www.diaart.org.
