

Professional Development Workshops for Artists Launches at East End Arts

March 27, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

A series of professional development workshops for artists is being offered by East End Arts. Offered in self-contained installments, workshops take place on Wednesday evenings from April 5 through May 24, 2017 at the Riverhead arts organization. Workshops center on the business side of art and offer instruction and advice on marketing, fundraising, legal issues, curating and writing artist statements. Presenters and panelists are art professionals with practical experience in the topics presented.

All workshops require advance registration and have limited space available. Workshop fee is $20 per person per workshop. Continue reading for the full line up offered in East End Arts's Professional Development Workshop Series for Artists.
