

East End Gallery Scene: Exhibitions & Receptions in April 2017

March 30, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

The first weekend in April is a relative quiet one for the East End gallery scene (except for East Hampton Village), allowing art fans to catch up on a multiple of shows that opened in the last few weeks as well as those who are about to close. Click here to visit March's East End Gallery Scene for the full line of exhibitions opening recently. Meanwhile, April promises to be a full month as the weeks roll along. Scroll on to discover exhibitions already planned for April. Check back with Hamptons Art Hub as new exhibitions and gallery events will be added as the information becomes available.
