Southampton Cultural Center Hosts a Benefit Gala and Vocal Performances to Benefit its Year-Round Cultural Programming.

The Southampton Cultural Center (SCC) is hosting two benefit events in June to celebrate its contributions to the arts in the Hamptons and East End community and in support of its art and culture programming. Immediately after Memorial Day Weekend, the chance to have fun and support the arts takes place in its Second Annual Gala “An Evening of Wine & Roses,” taking place on Sunday, June 4, 2017. The following week, a series of vocal performance will benefit SCC’s theater programming and help kick off its upcoming season.

About Southampton Cultural Center

Southampton Cultural Center (SCC), a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, combines art, education, dance, music and theatre to engage and nourish the entire community with the arts. Established in 1985, SCC serves all East End residents and visitors by providing a variety of programming including classes, art exhibitions, and live performances for children and adults at affordable prices. A bequest by the late Willard Levitas and his wife, Aura, allowed for a renovation and expansion that led to the 2006 opening of SCC’s lauded performance space The Levitas Center for the Arts.

Southampton Cultural Center is committed to taking a leadership role in the expansion of the Southampton Village Arts District as part of its mission to engage our diverse community and nourish excellence in all creative art forms.
