

SOCIAL SEEN: 2017 Memorial Day Weekend Openings on the East End

June 6, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

Memorial Day Weekend was a vibrant one for the Hamptons gallery scene. Clusters of opening receptions were held on Friday and Saturday nights in East Hampton Village and Sag Harbor. New galleries in The Hamptons and the North Fork opened their doors. Outside of the hot spots, Quogue Gallery opened its summer season as did Chase Edwards Contemporary in Bridgehampton and ILLE Arts in Amagansett. Click here for photos of the Opening Reception of “Deborah Buck and John Monti.”

Continue scrolling to see scenes from Opening Receptions at galleries in the Villages of East Hampton and Sag Harbor.

.

The Opening of “#friendswithboats” at Sara Nightingale Gallery. Photo by Tom Kochie.

.

Margaret Garret, Eric Fischl and April Gornik at the Opening of “#friendswithboats” at Sara Nightingale Gallery. Photo by Tom Kochie.

.

Dennis and Alicia Longwell at the Opening of “#friendswithboats” at Sara Nightingale Gallery. Photo by Tom Kochie.

.

Rose Marie Cromwell with her photograph “On the Beach” at the Opening of “#friendswithboats” at Sara Nightingale Gallery. Photo by Tom Kochie.

Monika Olko and artist Brendan Murphy with his painting "Fingerprint" at the Opening of "The Lightness of Being: Paintings and Sculpture by Brandan Murphy" at Monika Olko Gallery. Photo by Tom Kochie.

Brett Loving at the Opening of "The Lightness of Being: Paintings and Sculpture by Brandan Murphy" at Monika Olko Gallery. Photo by Tom Kochie.

Artist Christopher Deeton at the Opening of "The Rhythms of Deeton and Mizrahi" at Janet Lehr Fine Arts. Photo by Tom Kochie.

Artist Haim Mizrahi at the Opening of "The Rhythms of Deeton and Mizrahi" at Janet Lehr Fine Arts. Photo by Tom Kochie.

Damien Roman and Alexandra Fanning at the opening of "Grant Haffner: Mohawk Trail" at Roman Fine Art. Photo by Tom Kochie.