by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

The Southampton Cultural Center held its Second Annual Gala: An Evening of Wine & Roses at the Southampton Social Club. The venue was transformed with an abundance of roses arranged by Richard Udice. The evening's honorees were Tom Clavin, New York Times Bestselling Author, the Hon. Mark Epley, Mayor, Village of Southampton, Dan Gasby, Restaurateur and Brain Health Advocate, Bonnie Grice, Actress, NPR Broadcaster and host, The Song is You, Phil Keith, Author, Publisher, Educator and Paton Miller, Artist, Educator.

Exciting live and silent auction items helped raise additional funds that benefit all of the SCC's programming. The SCC focuses on providing performance, exhibitions, and compelling arts and cultural education opportunities accessible to all in the greater Southampton community.

Among guests enjoying the evening were gala co-chairs Thomas Farrell and Barbara Kushner with husband Paul; Tom Knight, SCC Chair, Sean Deneney, Sarah Moulton Faux and husband Gordon, Graham Seymore, Stan Glinka, Ellen and Michael Irving and Kenneth Ramos.
