June 20, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

Artist Talks, film screenings, live music and more are on our list of things to do with an art and culture twist in The Hamptons through June 25, 2017. On the art front, expect to find a panel featuring Taryn Simon and Innocent Project co-directors, a David Salle Talk, contemporary painters Alexander Klingspor and Margo Selsk in conversation with arts journalist Pat Rogers and a focus on Larry Rivers in art, film and through the eyes of documentary filmmaker Lana Jokel. Read on for more events to add to your list of things to do in The Hamptons this week and through the weekend.

David Salle at The Art Barge

The Victor D'Amico Institute of Art will host a conversation painter, printmaker and writer, David Salle on Wednesday, June 21, 2017 from 6 to 8 p.m. Salle will be the first guest in The Art Barge's 2017 Artists Speak series.

David Salle (b.1952, Oklahoma) is a painter who helped define the post-modern sensibility. Solo exhibitions of his work have been held at major museums and galleries worldwide, and his paintings are in the collections of numerous museums, both here and abroad. Salle is also a prolific writer on art. His essay collection "HOW TO SEE: Looking, Talking, and Thinking about Art" was recently published by W.W. Norton.

The Artists Speak series was started in 1983 as an invitational discussion with renowned artists about their life and work. Past participants have included Christo, Alfonso Ossorio, Chuck Close, Dan Flavin, Jack Youngerman, Audrey Flack, James Rosenquist, Elaine de Kooning, and many more. Last year's guests included Eric Fischl, Donald Sultan, and Laurie Anderson.

Tickets are $20. Advance reservations are required. Please no walk-ins. The Art Barge is located at 110 Napeague Meadow Road, Amagansett, NY. www.theartbarge.org.

Live Jazz: Ralph Lalama at Bay Burger

The Jam Session Inc. presents "Ralph Lalama - tenor sax" on Thursday, June 22, 2017 from 7 to 9 p.m. at Bay Burger in Sag Harbor.

A solid fixture of the New York jazz scene and respected worldwide, Ralph Lalama embodies the jazz sound ideal – great time, great swing, expressed through great melodic ideas. Everything he says and plays comes out of his deep connection and appreciation for “the Beat.” He excels in a chord-less trio format with his amazing command of the harmonic progressions articulated through his horn. A three-time Grammy winner through his work in the Joe Lovano Nonet and the Vanguard Jazz Orchestra, Lalama has nine CDs as a leader and has contributed to over 60 recordings as a sideman. Performing with Lalama at Bay Burger will be the Thursday Night LIVE Band made up of Wayne Sabella on piano, Peter Martin Weiss on upright bass and Claes Brondal on drums and md.

Bay Burger is located at 1742 Sag Harbor Turnpike, Sag Harbor, NY 11963.
