

Sol y Sombra Spanish Dance Company Headlines Festival del Amor at Patchogue's Summer of Love

August 18, 2017

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

An evening of dance, music and live art takes place on Saturday, August 19, 2017 from 5 to 10 p.m. and caps the Patchogue Arts Council's Summer of Love. Festival del Amor, held in the Patchogue Garden Club Garden, located at the intersection of Terry Street and South Ocean Avenue, gets things started with a featured performance of flamenco by Sol y Sombra.

Instead of Long Island, imagine a sultry evening in Spain's Andalusia. From a courtyard garden hung thick with bougainvillea comes the strum of a guitar, the wail of a Roma singer, and the exciting staccato heels of a flamenco dancers. Sol y Sombra Spanish Dance Company will take the audience there as they present a fiery performance of flamenco music, song, and dance.

Festival del Amor will also include a performance by Steel Impressions, a steel drum band. A pop up gallery exhibition, presented in collaboration with Projecting Arts, and a sculpture walk in the Patchogue Garden Club Garden adds an interactive element to the evening. Sculpture on view includes works by Bill Shillalies, Anti Liu, Rich Belsky with Michael Ahrens, Laurence Lee, Susan Abraham, J. Valentin aka Ratgrrl, John A. Bell and winning entries from Blue Point Brewery's Log Jam 8, featuring painted wooden log sculptures. "The Summer of Love" sculpture installation remains on view through September 30, 2017.

Mere footsteps away from the Patchogue Garden Club is the Patchogue Arts Council Gallery. On view is the group show "Patchworks 2017," with work selected by Hamptons Art Hub managing editor Pat Rogers. It remains on view through September 3, 2017. Around the corner is the public mural Summer of Love by John Hollingworth. Located on the Patchogue-Medford Library wall facing Artspace, find it along Terry Street. It remains on view through September 3, 2017.

Festival del Amor also includes live painting by Amanda Reilly and drawing by the Patchogue Arts Council Sketch Club.

The family-friendly event features a book reading from 6 to 6:30 p.m. by “Lost and Found Cat!” by co-author Amy Shrodes. The children’s book tells the true story that led to the book, which was a New York Times Featured Selection, according to the Patchogue Arts Council. The reading is sponsored by Projecting Arts, which identifies, promotes, and supports artistic expressions within a Latin American context by fostering innovative collaborations throughout the New York Metropolitan area.

For some added fun, be on the scene at 9 p.m. for the flash mob event “Freeze with us!” Festival del Amor hosts the first annual Patchogue Freeze where participants are requested to strike a pose for 30 seconds. The event is a co-project of the Patchogue Arts Council, L.I. Against Domestic Violence with the Village of Patchogue and Town of Brookhaven.

Festival del Amor is part of the Patchogue Arts Council’s Summer of Love Festival 1967 – 2017, a season-long event celebrating the 50th anniversary of the Summer of Love. For a complete list of Summer of Love events, visit www.patchoguearts.org. In case of rain, Festival del Amor will be held on Sunday, August 20, 2017 from 6 to 10 p.m.
