

East End Things To Do - Highlights Through October 29, 2017

October 24, 2017

by Kathryn Heine

Closing out October, expect to find plenty of fun and culture-filled events. This week's options for things to do in The Hamptons, North Fork and Riverhead represent a range of unusual choices including a talk about Mars and a historic graveyard tour. Moving into art and culture, expect to find theater, a Japanese fabric dying workshop, art events and more. Read on for our list of some of the best events taking place on the East End through October 29, 2017.

Talk on Mars

Guild Hall and the Montauk Observatory present "A Rover's Eye View of the Ancient Surface and Climate of Mars" on Thursday, October 26, 2017 at 7 p.m.

Dr. Joel Hurowitz, SUNY Stony Brook and a Deputy Principal Investigator in NASA's 2020 Rover mission will discuss those observations, as well as the upcoming Mars 2020 rover mission and the role that the Planetary Instrument X-ray Lithochemistry (PIXL), part of the scientific payload for that mission, will play in further deciphering the history of the surface & climate of Mars.

Free. Reservations are strongly encouraged. Guild Hall is located at 158 Main St, East Hampton, NY 11937. www.guildhall.org.

"Clever Little Lies" Opens in Quogue

The Hampton Theatre Company presents "Clever Little Lies" from October 26 through November 12, 2017.

"Clever Little Lies"—an adult comedy by Joe DiPietro about love and marriage, in and outside the bonds of matrimony—will be the first play of the Hampton Theatre Company's 2017-2018 season. Directed by Andrew Botsford, "Clever Little Lies" features four Hampton Theatre Company veterans—Ed Brennan, Carolann DiPirro, Terrance Fiore, and Diana Marbury.

Sensing from her husband that something is wrong in their son's marriage, Alice invites the young couple over for a cocktails and cheesecake interrogation. As one set of lies breaks down, Alice offers an object lesson by creating a new web of fanciful deceit about her own marriage. Or is she telling the truth? Characterized as both shattering and hilarious, the play is a laugh-filled story of long-term love and marriage, for better and for worse.

Tickets range from $10 to $30. “Clever Little Lies” runs from October 26 to November 12, 2017 with shows on Thursdays and Fridays at 7 p.m., Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 2:30 p.m., with an additional matinee on November 11. The Quogue Community Hall is located at 125 Jessup Ave, Quogue, NY 11959. www.hamptontheatre.org.

“Boeing Boeing” Performances

Southampton Cultural Center’s Center Stage continues performances of Marc Camoletti’s “Boeing Boeing” through November 5, 2017. Performances take place on Thursdays and Fridays at 7 p.m., Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sunday matinees at 2:30 p.m.

“Boeing Boeing” centers on 1960s bachelor Bernard. Living in a flat in Paris and engaged to three gorgeous stewardesses seems idyllic until Bernard’s friend Robert comes to stay and a new speedier Boeing jet launches and throws a wrench into his carefully calculated planning. With all three stewardesses in town simultaneously, Robert forgets which lies go where and chaos ensues. “Boeing Boeing” won two Tony Awards, including Best Revival of a Play and for Mark Rylance as Leading Actor in a Play. At Center Stage, “Boeing Boeing” features Dane DuPuis, Shannon DuPuis, Samantha Honig, John Leonard, Catherine Maloney and Josephine Wallace.

General admission tickets are $25 and student tickets (under 21 with ID) are $15. Dinner/Theatre packages at Plaza Café are available Thursdays through Saturdays. Southampton Cultural Center is located at 25 Pond Ln, Southampton, NY 11968. www.scc-arts.org.
