

On Stage: Ultimate Guide for Live Music & Performance for Hamptons Memorial Day Weekend

May 25, 2018
by Pat Rogers

Memorial Day Weekend brings stars to stage in The Hamptons. If you're looking for theater, live music and performance, there are plenty of options in The Hamptons to consider. We've rounded up options for what's possible this holiday weekend:

THEATER

“Don't Dress For Dinner” Presented by Hampton Theatre Company

“Don't Dress for Dinner”—a mile-a-minute comedy by Marc Camoletti adapted from the original French by Robin Hawdon—is currently being offered by the Hampton Theatre Company. Performances take place Friday, Saturday and Sunday at the Quogue Community Hall, 125 Jessup Ave, Quogue, NY 11959.

Pintauro Opera at The Parrish Art Museum

“Salvation: Joe Pintauro's Metropolitan Operas” takes place on Friday, May 25, 2018 at 6 p.m. but is already sold out. However, there is a wait list. To be added, call 631-283-2118 x142.

“Salvation” is the world premiere of a fully-staged, contemporary musical theater piece based on three one-acts by playwright Joe Pintauro, adapted and set to music by composer/director Kevin Jeffers. Merging classical and modern musical theater styles, Jeffers directs a cast of six New York-based singers and provides piano accompaniment.

The Parrish Art Museum is located at 279 Montauk Highway Water Mill, NY 11976. www.parrishart.org.
