

East End Things To Do - Highlights Through July 8, 2018

July 2, 2018

by Kathryn Heine

This week is a busy one for The Hamptons and North Fork! It may be July 4th but there are still plenty of noteworthy events taking place besides fireworks. Making our list is a Caribbean-themed cocktail party celebrating art. The Insta famous The Kaplan Twins will be partying it up in Montauk. Head to Greenport Village on Friday night when the galleries and creative stores stay open late, while there catch the Opening Reception for The Artists of the North Fork at Castello di Borghese Vineyard.

In addition, the first of three art fairs hits the Hamptons when Market Art + Design opens in Bridgehampton, NY. A VIP preview takes place on Thursday, July 5, 2018 from 6 to 10 p.m. The fair will be open daily through July 8, 2018 on the grounds of the Bridgehampton Historical Museum. Continue reading for the events and things to do that made our list through July 8, 2018. For galas taking place this weekend, click here.

Lecture on Jackson Pollock

The Pollock-Krasner House and Study Center presents "Pollock's Density," a talk by Michael Schreyach on Sunday, July 8, 2018 at 5 p.m. at Art Center at Duck Creek.

The Lichenstein Lecture Series will kick off with the talk by Michael Schreyach, an associate professor of art history at Trinity University in San Antonio. By examining key paintings in Pollock's oeuvre, from his 1943 "Mural" to "Portrait and a Dream," 1953, Michael will offer fresh insights into the artist's intentions as expressed in his work. After the talk, copies of Michael's book, "Pollock's Modernism," will be available for purchase and signing.

Admission is free, and no reservations are required. This year they're at a new location, the John Little Barn at the Arts Center at Duck Creek located at 127 Squaw Rd, East Hampton, NY 11937, the former studio of John Little, a close friend of Pollock and Krasner.
