

10 Things to Do in The Hamptons in October 2018

October 16, 2018

by Pat Rogers

In Fall, The Hamptons is a great place to be for art and culture. There's more room on the sidewalks and outdoor pastimes begin sharing equal billing with indoor entertainment including performance, art openings, talks and interesting things to do. To make planning easy, following is our list of the best things to do in October 2018 after Columbus Day Weekend.

1. Wolffer Estate - Candlelight Fridays in the Tasting Room

The Tasting Room at Wolffer Estate Vineyard becomes especially magical on Friday evenings when its enlivened by live jazz. A fall and spring favorite, Candlelight Fridays returns on October 19, 2018 and is held weekly. Vanessa Trouble performs on October 19, 2018 and Ludmilla on October 26, 2018.

No cover charge or reservations needed for parties of eight or less.

Wolffer Estate is located at 139 Sagg Road, Sagaponack, NY 11962. www.wolffer.com

2. Halloween Gets Extra Spooky at the Haunted Rogers Mansion in Southampton Village

For the month of October, the Rogers Mansion of the Southampton Historical Society has ghosts as housemates, just in time for the Halloween season. Exhibitions revealing days gone by in Southampton are on view with spirits from the past manifesting to help make the season a spooky one along with a few special events.

To get into the scary (but fun) state of mind, there's a Frankenstein film screening on Thursday, October 25, 2018 from 5:30 to 6:45 p.m. (held at Rogers Memorial Library, 91 Coopers Farm Road in Southampton Village) and explore the Rogers Mansion and beyond with a team of real Ghostbusters in "Paranormal Exploration" on Saturday, October 27, 2018, at 2 p.m. Rogers Mansion has been transformed into a haunt for the supernatural throughout October. Visit the Rogers Mansion to compare what's real and what's imagined throughout October on Wednesdays to Saturdays from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Touring the Haunted Rogers Mansion is $5 for adults and non-members, free for members and children and continues through November 3, 2018. The Frankenstein film screening is free. "Paranormal Exploration" tour is $10, free for members and children under 17 years old.

Rogers Mansion is located at 17 Meeting House Lane, Southampton, NY 11968. www.southamptonhistory.org

3. Performance: "The Red Badge of Courage" at Southampton Cultural Center

October 19 to November 4, 2018

Stephen Crane's classic Civil War novel "The Red Badge of Courage" comes to the stage at the Southampton Cultural Center, co-presented by the boots on the ground theater company. Performances will be held October 19 to November 4, 2018, on Fridays and Saturdays at 7 p.m. and on Sundays at 2:30 p.m. On November 4, 2018, a special free encore performance for veterans and their families will be presented at 6 p.m.

The Red Badge of Courage centers on Henry Fleming, a young Union soldier who battles his inner demons as he runs from and eventually faces his greatest fears. Published in 1895, the Red Badge of Courage is considered one of the first great war novels and has never gone out of print.

Historical accuracy is a high priority for producer Bonnie Grice and costumes and props have been sourced to stay true to the period. An exhibition of Civil War memorabilia will be on display in the Cultural Center's gallery, curated by Stephen Gould in collaboration with the Southampton Historical Museum.

General Admission is $25 and $12 for students under 21 years old with ID. Dinner and theater packages with the Plaza Cafe are $69. For the special free encore performance on November 4, 2018, veterans are required to reserve tickets in advance by emailing Kirsten Lonnie at klonnie@scc-arts.org.

Southampton Cultural Center is located at 25 Pond Lane, Southampton, NY 11968. www.scc-arts.org
