

7 East End Things to Do through November 4, 2018

October 30, 2018

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

This weekend is especially vibrant with things to do on the East End with an art and culture twist. In The Hamptons, there are two theater productions, a design lecture, a film screening and an art lecture. On the North Fork, expect to find a talk on historic art and the annual Greenport Gallery Walk which brings extra fun to walking around Greenport Village on a Friday night. Continue reading to discover our picks for the best things to do this weekend in The Hamptons and on the North Fork on eastern Long Island.

1. Performance: “The Red Badge of Courage” at Southampton Cultural Center

October 19 to November 4, 2018

Stephen Crane’s classic Civil War novel “The Red Badge of Courage” comes to the stage at the Southampton Cultural Center, co-presented by the boots on the ground theater company. The final weekend of performances takes place through November 4, 2018 on Fridays and Saturdays at 7 p.m. and on Sundays at 2:30 p.m. On November 4, 2018, a special free encore performance for veterans and their families will be presented at 6 p.m.

The Red Badge of Courage centers on Henry Fleming, a young Union soldier who battles his inner demons as he runs from and eventually faces his greatest fears. Historical accuracy is a high priority for producer Bonnie Grice and costumes and props have been sourced to stay true to the period. An exhibition of Civil War memorabilia will be on display in the Cultural Center’s gallery, curated by Stephen Gould in collaboration with the Southampton Historical Museum.

General Admission is $25 and $12 for students under 21 years old with ID. Dinner and theater packages with the Plaza Cafe are $69. For the special free encore performance on November 4, 2018, veterans are required to reserve tickets in advance by emailing Kirsten Lonnie at klonnie@scc-arts.org.

Southampton Cultural Center is located at 25 Pond Lane, Southampton, NY 11968. www.scc-arts.org
