

Top Things to Do in The Hamptons & East End Through April 21, 2019

April 17, 2019

by Hamptons Art Hub Staff

The holiday weekend is a relative quiet one on the East End for things to do with a cultural twist. Film, comedy, an art workshop plus live music make our list for the best things to do this weekend in The Hamptons and the East End through April 21, 2019.

Chalk Art of Letting Go

Wolffer Estate Vineyard presents the “Chalk Art of Letting Go” with Artist Kara Hoblin on Thursday, April 18, 2019 from 6 to 8 p.m.

North Fork Artist Kara Hoblin brings her popular “Chalk Art of Letting Go” to Wolffer Estates. Each guest receives a small chalkboard and is encouraged to create chalk art inspired by a memory or emotion to let go. The work is erased at the end of the class to assist with the release of negative energy.

Admission is $65 or $55 for Wolffer Members with reservations made by clicking here. Wolffer Estate Vineyard is located at 139 Sagg Road, Sagaponack, NY 11962. www.wolffer.com.

Film Screening

The Parrish Art Museum screens “Loving Vincent,” the first fully-painted feature film, on Friday, April 19, 2019 at 6 p.m.

“Loving Vincent” (2017, PG-13, 94 minutes), features over 65,000 hand-painted oils created by 125 artists from around the world. Nominated for an Academy Award and winner of the European Film Award for Best Animated Feature, the film tells the story of Vincent van Gogh’s life and controversial death through his paintings and the characters that inhabit them.

Admission is $12 or free for museum members. Click here to reserve. The Parrish Art Museum is located at 279 Montauk Highway, Water Mill, NY 11976. www.parrishart.org.
