Artist Talk

Duck Creek Arts Center hosts an exhibiting Artist Talk by Hiroyuki Hamada in support of his solo show of paintings on Saturday, June 22, 2019, from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. A jazz concert begins at 5 p.m. and features “The Jam Session’s Jazz at Duck Creek” with Bill O’Connell and the Steve Slagle Band performing.

Better known for his sculpture, the exhibition presents paintings made by Hamada from 2015 to 2018 that make use of a similar visual language as his sculpture. All abstract, the works are a response to the artist’s ongoing concerns about human rights and flaws in our current political structures, according to curator Jess Frost. The show remains on view through June 23, 2019.

Admission is free. Duck Creek Arts Center is located at 127 Squaw Road, East Hampton, NY 11937.

Gypsy Music Live!

Guild Hall presents The Django Festival Allstars on Saturday, June 22, 2019, at 8 p.m.

Part of their World Tour and straight from France, The Django Festival Allstars bring the music of the legendary Gypsy Jazz Guitarist Django Reinhardt into the 21st century. Their unique, high energy performance pays tribute to one of the greatest guitar players of all time. Reinhardt's driving, swinging style of "hot jazz" sizzles as masterfully played by the Allstars, who unleash their own interpretations, arrangements and original compositions with stunning virtuosity.

This internationally renowned group prominently features one of Europe's greatest musical families: guitarist/violinist Dorado Schmitt and his two sons Samson and Amati. The band also features virtuoso violinist Pierre Blanchard and accordionist extraordinaire Ludovic Beier. In addition, on rhythm guitar, DouDou Cuillerier, who also brings the house down with his scat singing, and Francko Mehrstein. On bass, Antonio Licusati and Gino Roman.

Tickets are $28 to $95 for Guild Hall Members and $30 to $100 for non-members. Click here to purchase tickets. Student Rush Tickets are available. For details, call the Box Office at 631-324-4050. Guild Hall is located at 158 Main Street, East Hampton, NY 11937.
