

Top 9 Things to Do in The Hamptons through July 28, 2019

July 24, 2019

by Julia Halsey

Fun things to do abound in The Hamptons this weekend with artist and writer talks, live music, an informal outdoor art sale with cocktail party kick off and more. On Sunday, head to Guild Hall to get the inside scoop on MoMA's New Galleries which open this fall. All take place through Sunday, July 28, 2019. Scroll on to see the events that made our list of the best things to do this weekend in The Hamptons.

1. Screenwriter Discusses Camp Hero as Muse in New Drama

The Montauk Library host a discussion with Joe Kolver about his screenplay, "Camp Hero," on Thursday, July 25, at 6:30 p.m.

In his script, East Hampton resident Joe Kolver blends historical elements from the Cuban Missile Crisis in a fictitious adventure of two Cuban boys who are transported to Montauk's Camp Hero as part of the secret program "Operation Pedro Pan." His talk will discuss what inspired him to use Montauk and Camp Hero as the film's location as well as the ways the historical importance of the secret program known is relevant to the current plight of immigrants and refugees who can receive mixed receptions in their new homes in America.

Admission is free and open to the public. The Montauk Library is located at 871 Montauk Highway, Montauk, NY 11954. www.montauklibrary.org.
