

Artists Alliance of East Hampton Opens Fall Members Show - “Autumn Rhythms” in Amagansett

September 17, 2019

by Sponsors

Artists Alliance of East Hampton Exhibits “Autumn Rhythms”

September 21 - 22, 2019

Opening Reception: Saturday, September 21, 2019 from 5 to 7 p.m.

Jackson Carriage House, 129 Main Street, Amagansett, NY 11930

The Artists Alliance of East Hampton (AAEH) continues to celebrate its 35th anniversary year with their fourth and final Artist Members Show of 2019 - “Autumn Rhythms.” The exhibition will feature painting, sculpture and works in glass and ceramics. Exhibiting artists are all members of AAEH, a non-profit organization whose mission is to strengthen and support artists living on the East End.

“Autumn Rhythms” will be exhibited Saturday and Sunday, September 21 & 22, 2019, at the Jackson Carriage House on the Amagansett Historical Society grounds, 129 Main Street, Amagansett, NY 11930. An Artist Reception will take place on Saturday, September 21, 2019, from 5 to 7 p.m. and feature refreshments and live music by Brad Beyer.

“Pussy’s Pond in Springs” by Cynthia Sobel. Painting. Courtesy AAEH.

Sadly, long-time AAEH artist member Athos Zacharias passed away last month. His painting, Clown, will be included as per his wishes and courtesy of his daughter. Athos Zacharias, a Springs painter, had a long and successful career which was launched during the prime of Abstract Expressionism. The Alliance is honored to have his work as part of “Autumn Rhythms.”

“Clown” by Athos Zacharias, 2019. 20 x 16 inches. Courtesy AAEH.

“Autumn Rhythms” will be presented at the Amagansett Historical Association’s Jackson Carriage House for one weekend only—September 21 & 22, 2019—and can be found at 129 Main Street in Amagansett, NY.

Gallery hours are Saturday, 10 am to 7 pm, and Sunday, 10 am to 4 pm. An Artist Reception will take place on Saturday, Sept. 21, 2019 from 5 pm to 7 pm. Refreshments will be provided with live music supplied by Brad Beyer, a local musician who performs music by Billy Joel and songs with a similar sound.

“Falls Bounty” by Mary Milne. Glass. Courtesy AAEH.

“Love not Hate” by Laura Ellen Hill. Painting. Courtesy AAEH.

AAEH was formed in 1984 as the Jimmy Ernst Artists Alliance in his memory and to carry on his vision of and artists’ community. Today, the Alliance continues in that tradition by strengthening and supporting artists living and working on the East End of Long Island through networking events including artist lectures and presentations. A non-profit organization, AAEH’s community outreach programs include scholarships for high school students and workshops for middle school students. AAEH is based in East Hampton, NY, located on the South Fork of Long Island.

Painting by Mark Zimmerman. Courtesy AAEH.

Along with the members artworks in “Autumn Rhythms,” antique carriages from the Amagansett Historical Associations collection will be on display. The Jackson Carriage House, where the art is being exhibited, is a post and beam barn sharing the grounds with Miss Amelia Cottage and the Phebe Edwards Mulford House. All can be found on the corner of Main St. and Windmill Lane in Amagansett, NY. Parking is available on the grounds. Admission is free.

Join us and enjoy the artwork, the Carriage house and the music!

Wood sculpture by Bob Wilson. Courtesy AAEH.

The Artists Alliance of East Hampton’s Artist Members Show, “Autumn Rhythms,” will be exhibited Saturday and Sunday, September 21 & 22, 2019, at the Jackson Carriage House at the Amagansett Historical Society grounds, 129 Main Street, Amagansett, NY 11930. An Artist Reception will take place on Saturday, September 21, 2019, from 5 to 7 p.m. and feature refreshments and live music by Brad Beyer. www.amagansetthistory.org/the-museums/

For information on the Artists Alliance of East Hampton, visit www.aaeh.org.

Copyright 2019 Hamptons Art Hub LLC. All rights reserved.