

Top Things to Do in The Hamptons for Columbus Day Weekend 2019

October 9, 2019

by Julia Halsey

Columbus Day Weekend is bound to be a fun one in The Hamptons. The Hamptons International Film Festival returns to present screenings and events for five days. In addition, expect to find live music, a harvest party and more fun things to do. All take place through October 14, 2019.

1. Hamptons International Film Festival

The Hamptons International Film Festival will take place in spots across The Hamptons from Thursday, October 10, through Monday, October 14, 2019.

Screenings will be held in East Hampton at the Regal UA East Hampton Cinema, Guild Hall, Rowdy Hall, the East Hampton Library; in Sag Harbor at Bay Street Theater; and in Southampton at the Regal UA Southampton Theater and the Southampton Arts Center.

Individual tickets can be purchased online, over the phone at 631-825-0050 or at the in-person box offices. Box offices are located at Obligato in East Hampton as well as Bay Street Theater. Click here for details on purchasing tickets.

2. Classical Music at the Parrish

The Parrish Art Museum presents its second “Salon Series” of the season on Friday, October 11, 2019, from 6 to 7:30 p.m.

The museum’s concert program features clarinetist Maksim Shtrykov and pianist Misuzu Tanaka performing works by Felix Mendelssohn, Donato Lovreglio and Sergei Prokofiev. Both artists are graduates of The Juilliard School and have performed at prestigious venues including Weill Recital Hall at Carnegie Hall, Germany’s Leipzig Gewandhaus and Japan’s Izumi Hall.

Tickets for all “Salon Series” concerts are $25 or $10 for Parrish Members and students. Reservations are required. Click here to reserve. The Parrish Art Museum is located at 279 Montauk Highway, Water Mill, NY 11976.
