Films, artist presentations and music made our list of the best things to do in The Hamptons this weekend. November continues to be a vibrant one on the East End. Scroll on to discover why. All events take place through November 17, 2019.

1. OLA Film Festival and Cocktail Reception

The Parrish Art Museum is screening “Antes Que Llegue el Ferry (Before the Ferry Arrives)” on Friday, November 15, 2019, as part of the 16th annual, multi-venue OLA Film Festival curated by the Organización Latino-Americana of Eastern Long Island. The program begins with a bi-lingual tour of exhibitions in the museum at 5:30 p.m., followed by a cocktail reception from 6 to 7:15 p.m. and capped off with the film screening at 7:15 p.m.

Joining the tour is photographer Tria Giovan, who will give a short talk on her photos from the 1993 series “The Cuba Archive.” Her work is currently exhibited in “Artists Chose Artists,” on view at the Parrish through February 23, 2020. The series documents Giovan’s travels to Cuba during the economic depression of the Special Period.

The film, “Antes Que Llegue el Ferry (Before the Ferry Arrives)” explores the sense of uncertainty in Cuba when it was announced in 2015 that, after more than 50 years, a ferry service would resume between that country and the United States. It was directed by Juan Caunedo Domínguez, Vladimir García Herrera and Raúl Escobar Delgado.

Admission is $15 for the tour, reception and screening, or $5 for Museum Members and students. Click here to reserve. The Parrish Art Museum is located at 279 Montauk Highway, Water Mill, NY 11976.

4. Artist Talk at Guild Hall

Guild Hall is hosting a talk with exhibiting artist Joyce Kubat on Saturday, November 16, 2019, at 2 p.m. Kubat is the Top Honors recipient of the 79th Artist Members Exhibition.

“Joyce Kubat: My People,” curated by Casey Dalene, presents a body of work that the artist has been developing since 2002. These deeply psychological figurative works are created by applying pastels to damp paper, creating a liquid soft skin with deep velvet pigments, to fluid pink inks that have the extraordinary transparency of flesh. These materials have led her to convey an emotionally raw narrative of human anatomy.

Admission is free but click here to reserve. Guild Hall is located at 158 Main Street, East Hampton, NY 11937.
