

Pollock Krasner House & Study Center

June 29, 2013

by Sage Cotignola

The home and studios of Jackson Pollock (1912-1956) and Lee Krasner (1908-1984). Both buildings are open for visitors. Summer art exhibitions are held each year. Pollock's studio appears as it was when the action painter used it—complete with paint drips on the floor. Visitors wear booties to protect the unusual slice of art history. The museum is seasonal.
