

LEGAL SERVICES FOR THE INTERNATIONAL ART MARKET

August 15, 2016

by Sage Cotignola

Pearlstein McCollough & Lederman LLP offers legal services for the international art market in Southampton, NY, Midtown Manhattan, and Downtown Manhattan.

Pearlstein McCollough & Lederman LLP advises their clients on a wide variety of transactions, disputes and regulatory matters involving different segments of the art market, including:

- Privately-negotiated purchase and sale transactions
- Consignments to galleries and auction houses
- Artist-dealer relations
- Disputes and litigation involving fakes and forgeries, attribution and authenticity
- Advisory and consulting arrangements
- Formation and operation of art investment funds
- Art finance and lending
- Museum loan and acquisition agreements
- Online sales and marketing
- Policy and regulatory matters involving particular art market sectors (e.g. antiquities and endangered species)
- Formation and governance of not-for-profit entities
- Licensing
- Import/export and customs issues relating to fine art, collectibles and antiquities
- Contested seizures and forfeitures

Located at 53 Hill Street, Suite 208, Southampton, NY 10036.

Contact 631.594.3737 or visit www.pmcounsel.com for more information.