by Pat Rogers

Gallery 125 primarily represents a new group of abstract painters living and working in Suffolk County. Most of the artists belong to Bellport's burgeoning Horizontalist movement. The gallery's available works also include the collection of the newly discovered master Arthur Pinajian (b. 1914) who died unknown in Bellport in 1999, leaving a cache of paintings now well-regarded by scholars and collectors.

Gallery 125 is located at 125 South Country, Road, Bellport, NY 11713. www.gallery125.org
